Laroche "L" Chablis - Bronze Medal Winner at the 2006 Decanter World Wine Awards

Based at the heart of Chablis in France, Laroche's winemaking traditions date back five generations. Laroche is respected by wine lovers and wine experts the world over for high quality Chablis wines and this was emphasised in 2003, when it was awarded “White Winemaker of the Year” at the International Wine Challenge.

This is benchmark pure Chablis. It shows clean, subtle apples and cream on the nose. The palate is crisp, lively and firm with stony notes. A refreshing aperitif or an excellent choice with salads, starters or seafood.

Winter Hill de Foncalieu Grande Reserve Merlot

Winter Hill wines are made from only the best selected grapes grown in the warm, sunny vineyards of the Languedoc Roussillon region on the shores of the Mediterranean Sea in southern France. The grande reserve wines are aged in oak barrels to give the wine extra depth and dimension.

This is an intense wine with wild berry and chocolate aroma and a rich velvety palate that lingers on the palate. Best served with roast dishes and cheese. Can be laid down for 2 to 3 years.
